(c) by the addition of a new subsection (4)

"(4) Section 38(1) (e) shall not apply where

(a) a person appointed as a director for the ARB Apex Bank Limited is a representative of a bank that is an affiliate to the ARB Apex Bank Limited; or

- (b) in the opinion of the Bank of Ghana, special circumstances require that the person be appointed as director of another bank.”

Section 40 of Act 673 amended

21. The principal enactment is amended by the substitution for section 40 of “Intervention of the Bank of Ghana in appointments

40. (1) A bank shall give prior notice to the Bank of Ghana before it appoints a Chief Executive Officer or a Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the bank, each of whom shall be ordinarily resident in the country.

(2) Where the bank appoints a Managing Director, that person shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the bank.

(3) In the case of an external company, the Chief Executive Officer of the bank shall also be the local manager of that company.

(4) Where the Chief Executive Officer is unable to perform official functions due to illness, absence from the country or any other sufficient cause, the Deputy Chief Executive Officer shall act as the chief executive after notifying the Bank of Ghana.

(5) A bank shall notify the Bank of Ghana of the changes in the membership of its board of directors and key management personnel of a bank in the case of a bank incorporated in Ghana, and in each other case, the changes in its key management personnel only.

(6) A person shall not be appointed or reappointed as director or as a member of key management personnel unless the appointment or reappointment takes into account guidelines issued by the Bank of Ghana related to fit and proper persons.

(7) Where the Bank of Ghana considers that a director or a member of the key management personnel is not a fit and proper person, it shall direct the removal of the director or person after hearing the bank and the bank shall comply.

(8) A bank shall not outsource any of its functions to any other person without the approval of the Bank of Ghana.

(9) A bank which contravenes any provision of this section shall pay to the Bank of Ghana a fine of one thousand penalty units”.

Section 42 of Act 673 amended

22. Section 42 of the principal enactment is amended in subsection (1) by the insertion of "holding a General Banking Licence or a bank holding a Class 1 Banking Licence" after "bank" where the word first appears.

"Guidelines

51 A. (1) The Bank of Ghana may by notice provide for the payment of fees and the levying of charges under this Act.

(2) The Bank of Ghana may by notice exclude from the application of any part of this Act banks holding a General Banking Licence or a Class II Banking Licence or any class of either of these banks subject to the terms and conditions that it considers fit.

(3) The Bank of Ghana may by notice make such guidelines or issue instructions that it considers fit for the purpose of this Act.

(4) Guidelines or instructions made under subsection (4) shall apply to all banks or to one or more classes of banks and shall take effect on the date of their issue to the banks or on a later date that may be specified in the guidelines.

(5) Any person to whom guidelines apply or instructions are issued shall comply with the guidelines and instructions.

(6) Any person who fails to comply with the guidelines or instructions made under this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand penalty units."

Section 60A of Act 673 inserted

25. The principal enactment is amended by the insertion of new sections 60A, 60B and 60C.

“Appointment of adviser

60A. (1) The Bank of Ghana may, if it considers it necessary to improve the affairs of a bank after examining a bank’s explanation, appoint a competent person as adviser to the bank’s chief executive at the expense of the bank.

(2) The Bank of Ghana may give a hearing to the bank before issuing the order unless it considers that the consequent delay in action would not be in the interest of the bank.

(3) A bank which is served with an order shall comply with the order and extend full co-operation to the adviser.

(4) An adviser appointed under this section is entitled to attend the meetings of the board of directors of the bank or its committees, and to participate in their deliberations.

(5) The adviser’s views shall be recorded in the minutes of the meetings, but the adviser shall not vote on a matter for determination by the meeting.

(6) An adviser appointed under this section

(a) shall hold office for the period that the Bank of Ghana may specify, and

(b) shall furnish the Bank of Ghana with a status report on the bank as frequently as the Bank of Ghana may determine.

Remedial measures

60B. Where the Bank of Ghana is satisfied after an examination under section 55 or otherwise based on the information at its disposal, that a bank

(a) has failed to comply with a provision of this Act or of Regulations or rules or directives issued under this Act;

(b) has been conducting its affairs in a manner detrimental to the interests of its depositors and creditors; or

(c) no longer possesses sufficient net own funds or is unlikely to fulfil its obligations towards its depositors and creditors;

the Bank of Ghana may

- (i) prohibit the bank from receiving fresh deposits or renewing the existing deposits;
- (ii) prohibit the bank from further lending or taking further financial exposures, or capital expenditure;
- (iii) prohibit the bank from paying a dividend on its equity capital or issue rights shares or bonus shares to shareholders or to any person claiming under their authority;
- (iv) suspend or remove from office the chief executive of the bank or restrict the chief executive's powers;
- (v) recommend the removal from any or all of the directors on the board of the bank or restrict their powers;
- (vi) appoint a conservator to take over the management of the bank, pending a decision on the bank's future set-up;
- (vii) revoke the licence issued to the bank to carry on banking; or
- (viii) appoint a liquidator for the winding-up of the bank.

Appointment and the rights and responsibilities of conservator

60C (1) Where the Bank of Ghana appoints a conservator, the conservator

- (a) holds office for the period or the extended period that the order may specify, unless the appointment is terminated by the Bank of Ghana;
- (b) draws salary and other emoluments from the bank which shall provide the conservator with the perquisites and amenities specified in the letter of appointment of the conservator;
- (c) has the powers of the chief executive to do the things that may be necessary for the management of the affairs, business and property of the bank;
- (d) may attend the meetings of the board of the bank and its committees and move a resolution that the conservator considers appropriate and vote on any subject at those meetings; and

(e) may appoint competent officials to assist the conservator or delegate authority to other officials.

(2) Where there is a conflict between an order issued by the conservator and an order given by a director, the chief executive or any other official of the bank in the past, the order of the conservator shall prevail.

(3) The conservator may,

(a) set aside a decision of the bank's board taken against the conservator's recommendation, or

(b) move a resolution at a general meeting of the bank's shareholders, or

(c) hold up a decision taken at the general meeting of the shareholders if the conservator considers it to be prejudicial to the interest of depositors, with the prior approval in writing of the Bank of Ghana,

(4) The conservator shall not be subject to any action, claim or liability in respect of an act done in good faith in pursuance of a power or duty conferred or imposed upon the conservator in terms of the conservator's appointment.

Section 62 of Act 673 amended

26. The principal enactment is amended in subsection (2) of section 62 by the substitution for "petition the High Court" of "appoint a liquidator"

Sections 69A and 69B of Act 673 inserted

27. The principal enactment is amended by the deletion of "voluntary" in the headnote of section 69 and the insertion of new sections 69A and 69B

"Priority of deposit liabilities

69A. Where a bank becomes unable to meet its obligations or becomes insolvent or suspends payment, the assets of that bank in Ghana shall be available to meet the deposit liabilities of the bank in Ghana and those deposits shall have priority over the unsecured liabilities of the bank other than those expenses and debts specified in the Bodies Corporate (Official Liquidation) Act 1963 (Act 180) to have priority of claim over other liabilities of the company in the event of a winding up.

Priority in the event of winding up

69B. (1) Despite the provisions of any other enactment, in the event of a winding up of a bank that carries on Class I and Class II banking business, the deposit liabilities of the bank shall be settled in the following manner:

- (a) the assets of the bank held, as determined under this Act and by the Bank of Ghana, in relation to the Class I banking business of the bank shall be available to meet the deposit liabilities of the bank in the following order of priority,
- (i) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank in the course of its Class I banking business with non-bank customers,
 - (ii) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank, in the course of its Class I banking business, with other banks in respect of their Class I banking business,
 - (iii) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank in the course of its Class I banking business with other banks including those incurred with its own bank with respect to its Class II banking business,
 - (iv) subject to the Bodies Corporate (Official Liquidation) Act, 1963 (Act 180) other liabilities incurred by the bank in the course of its Class I banking business,
 - (v) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank in the course of its Class II banking business with non-bank customers,
 - (vi) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank in the course of its Class II banking business with other banks,
 - (vii) subject to the Bodies Corporate (Official Liquidation) Act, 1963 (Act 180) other liabilities of the bank incurred in the course of its Class II banking business.
- (b) The assets of the bank held, as determined under this Act and by the Bank of Ghana, in relation to the Class II banking business of the bank, shall be available to meet the deposit liabilities of the bank in the following order of priority;

- (i) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank in the course of its Class II banking business with non-bank customers,
- (ii) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank in the course of its Class II banking business with other banks,
- (iii) subject to the Bodies Corporate (Official Liquidation) Act, 1963 (Act 180) other liabilities incurred by the bank in the course of its Class II banking business,
- (iv) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank in the course of its Class I banking business with non-bank customers,
- (v) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank in the course of its Class I banking business with other banks,
- (vi) subject to the Bodies Corporate (Official Liquidation) Act, other liabilities of the bank incurred in the course of its Class I banking business.

(2) Despite the provisions of any other enactment, in the event of a winding up of a bank that is licensed to carry on Class I banking business only, the deposit liabilities of the bank shall be settled in the following order of priority:

- (a) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank with non-bank customers;
- (b) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank with other banks;
- (c) subject to the Bodies Corporate (Official Liquidation) Act, 1963 (Act 180) other liabilities incurred by the bank.

(3) Despite the provisions of any other enactment, in the event of a winding up of a bank that is licensed to carry on Class II banking business only, the deposit liabilities of the bank shall be settled in the following order of priority:

- (a) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank with non-bank customers;
- (b) deposit liabilities incurred by the bank with other banks;
- (c) subject to the Bodies Corporate (Official Liquidation) Act, 1963 (Act 180) other liabilities incurred by the bank.

(4) The deposit or other liabilities in each class specified in subsections (1), (2), or (3) shall rank in the order specified but as between deposit or other liabilities of the same class rank equally between themselves and shall be paid in full unless the assets of the bank are insufficient to meet them in which case they shall be settled in equal proportions between themselves.

(5) For the purpose of section 69A and this section, "deposit liabilities" means sums of money paid on terms

- (a) under which they will be repaid, with or without interest or at a premium, and either on demand or at a time or in circumstances agreed by or on behalf of the persons making the payment and the bank receiving them;
- (b) which are not referable to the provisions of property or services or to the giving of security;

"bank" means a bank as defined in section 90 of this Act and any person licensed as a bank or permitted to carry on banking business in the country in which it is incorporated.

(6) For the purpose of subsection (5) (b), money is paid on terms or to the giving of security if, and only if

- (a) it is paid by way of advance or part-payment for the sale, hire or other provision of property or services of any kind and is repayable only in the event that the property or services is or are not in fact sold, hired or otherwise provided,
- (b) it is paid by way of security for payment for the provision of property or services of any kind provided or to be provided by the bank by whom or on whose behalf the money is accepted; or
- (c) it is paid by way of security for the delivery or return of property, whether in a particular state of repair or otherwise."

Section 72 of Act 673 amended

28. Section 72 of the principal enactment is amended in subsection (2) by the addition of "or as the Bank of Ghana may otherwise approve" at the end of the subsection.

Section 74 of Act 673 amended

29. Section 74 of the principal enactment is amended in subsection 1 by the insertion of “approved by the Bank of Ghana in the manner and on the terms that may be prescribed” after “bank.”

Section 83 of Act 673 amended

30. The principal enactment is amended by the substitution for section 83 of “Secrecy of information.”

83. (1) Each Director, officer or employee of the Bank or any person appointed by the Bank pursuant to the banking laws shall

- (a) in the case of a Director or head of department, take an oath of confidentiality in the form set out in Part I of the Second Schedule; and
- (b) in any other case, make a declaration of confidentiality before the chairperson of the Board in the form set out in Part II of the Second Schedule, before the person begins to perform any functions under the banking laws.

(2) Except

- (a) for the purposes of
 - (i) the performance of functions or the exercise of powers under the banking laws; or
 - (ii) meeting the requirements of an agreement or understanding reached by the Bank with any other relevant supervisory body; or
- (b) when lawfully required to do so,
 - (i) by an order of a Judge in chambers or any court of law; or
 - (ii) under any enactment,

no person referred to in subsection (1) shall, during and after a relationship with the Bank, disclose directly or indirectly to any person any information related to the affairs of the Bank, or any other bank or of any of its customers, which the person has acquired in the discharge of duties or the performance of functions.

(3) Any person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand penalty units.

(4) Nothing in this section shall preclude

- (a) the exchange or disclosure of information, under conditions of confidentiality, between the Bank and a foreign regulatory agency performing functions similar to those of the Bank under this Act, pursuant to any existing or future Treaty, or agreement or Memorandum of Understanding entered into by the Bank or the Republic of Ghana;
- (b) the disclosure of information pursuant to an order made by the Judge in chambers under any relevant enactment related to mutual assistance in criminal and related matters to a foreign state; or
- (c) the disclosure of information to the Financial Intelligence Centre set-up under the Anti-Money Laundering Law in force.

Section 84 of Act 673 amended

31. The principal enactment is amended by substitution for section 84 of "Secrecy of customer information"

84. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, each person with access to the books, accounts, records, financial statements or other documents, whether electronically or otherwise, of a bank shall:

(a) in the case of a director or key management personnel, take an oath of confidentiality in the form set out in Part I of the Third Schedule; or

(b) in any other case, make a declaration of confidentiality before the chief executive officer or deputy chief executive officer of the bank in the form set out in Part II of the Third Schedule, before the person begins to perform any function under the banking laws.

(2) Except for the purpose of the performance of functions or the exercise of a power under the banking laws or as directed in writing by the Bank, no person referred to in subsection (1) shall, during or after a relationship with the bank, disclose directly or indirectly to any person any information related to the affairs of any of its customers including deposits, borrowings or transactions or other personal, financial or business affairs without the prior written consent of the customer or the personal representative of the customer

- (3) The duty of confidentiality imposed under this section shall not apply where
- (a) a customer who had been issued a credit card or charge card by a bank, has had the card suspended or cancelled by the bank by reason of default in payment, and the bank discloses information related to the customer's name and identity, the amount of indebtedness and the date of suspension or cancellation of the credit card or charge card to other banks issuing credit cards or charge cards in Ghana;
 - (b) the customer is declared bankrupt in Ghana or, in the case of a company, is being wound up;
 - (c) the customer has passed away, testate or intestate, and the information is required by the appointed personal representative of the deceased or the testamentary executor solely in connection with the succession estate;
 - (d) civil proceedings arise involving the bank and the customer or the account of the customer;
 - (e) the information is required by a colleague in the employment of the same bank in Ghana or an auditor or legal representative of the bank who requires and is entitled to know the information in the course of professional duties;
 - (f) the information is required by another bank for the purpose of assessing the credit-worthiness of a customer, if the information is being sought for commercial reasons and is of a general nature;
 - (g) the bank has been served with a garnishee order attaching moneys in the account of the customer;
 - (h) any person referred to in subsection (1) is summoned to appear before a court or a Judge in Ghana and the court or the Judge orders the disclosure of the information;
 - (i) the bank is required to make a report or provides additional information on a suspicious transaction to the Financial Intelligence Centre set up under the Anti-Money Laundering law in force.
- (4) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), where the head office of a bank

(a) incorporated outside Ghana requires information from its branch in Ghana about any transaction of that branch; or

(b) incorporated in Ghana requires information from its branch outside Ghana about any transaction of that branch;

the information shall be disclosed.

(5) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), where the parent bank of a subsidiary, which subsidiary is operating in Ghana under consolidated supervision, requires information from the subsidiary about any of the transactions of the subsidiary, the information shall be disclosed.

(6) Where the information which is required under subsection (4) or (5) relates to a transaction with a customer other than a bank, no information other than credit facilities granted to or foreign exchange transactions with the customer shall be disclosed.

(7) No information related to deposits taken from or foreign exchange transactions with a central bank or any other entity or agency, by whatever name called, which performs the functions of a central bank, shall be disclosed.

(8) Where an officer of a foreign bank or an officer of a central bank or banking regulator in a foreign country or any other entity or agency, by whatever named called, has the responsibility to supervise banks or perform the functions of a central bank, proposes to conduct an inquiry, audit or inspection of a branch or a subsidiary of the bank in Ghana or carry out other action that would involve the duty of confidentiality imposed under this section, the officer shall obtain the prior written authorisation of the Bank and be subject to the duty of confidentiality imposed under this section and any conditions that the Bank may impose before information of a confidential nature is made available to the office.

(9) The Bank of Ghana or any other competent authority in Ghana or outside Ghana which requires information from a bank related to the transaction and accounts of any person, may apply to a Judge in chambers for an order of disclosure of the transactions and accounts or the part which may be necessary.

(10) The Judge in chambers shall not make an order of disclosure unless satisfied that

(a) the applicant is acting in the discharge of official duty;

(b) the information is material to civil or criminal proceedings, whether pending or contemplated or is required for the purpose of an enquiry into or related to the trafficking of narcotic and dangerous drugs, arms trafficking, offences related to terrorism or money laundering; or

(c) the disclosure is otherwise necessary, in the circumstances.

(11) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Bank or any person making an inspection or conducting an examination for it under the banking laws shall not reveal, unless required by a court so to do, to any person information in relation to the affairs of a customer obtained in the course of an inspection made or of an examination conducted under the banking laws.

(12) Despite subsection (11), the Bank may disclose to the auditor of a bank any information received under or for the purposes of this Act where it considers that disclosing the information would enable or assist it in the discharge of its supervisory duties.

(13) This section shall be without limiting the obligations of the Republic of Ghana under an international treaty, convention or agreement and to the obligations of the central bank under any concordat or arrangement or under any existing or future memorandum of understanding for co-operation and exchange of information between the Bank and any other foreign regulatory agency performing functions similar to those of the Bank.

(14) Subject to section 84A and 85, in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between any provision of this section and the provisions of any other enactment, the provisions of this section shall prevail."
